

WHAT KIND OF INNOVATIVE IDEAS CAN YOU
EXPECT FROM TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE?

ATTEND THE NEW TECH SHOWCASE APRIL 24

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
PURDUE UNIVERSITY
FORT WAYNE

Discover what's on the horizon by attending the New Tech Showcase
Wednesday, April 24, from 10 a.m. to noon in the IPFW Walb Student Union International Ballroom.

What kind of innovative tech ideas can you expect from tomorrow's workforce?

The future is now.

The April 24 showcase will feature 30 to 40 projects designed by teams from six area New Tech high schools:
New Tech Academy (Wayne H.S.)
Leading EDGE (Lakeland H.S.)
Adams Central Jet Tech (Adams Central H.S.)
Viking New Tech (Huntington North H.S.)
Eagle Tech Academy (Columbia City H.S.)
DeKalb New Tech (DeKalb H.S.)

New Tech Network high schools focus on essential skills that prepare students for the new economy, emphasizing project-based learning and integrating technology into the classroom.

IPFW knows that rapidly changing technologies require highly skilled, creative employees.
Now you can see how New Tech students envision those technologies.
